Promontory
Point: now a
Chicago
Landmark!

- celebrate the 86th birthday of Promontory Point and Chicago Landmarking with cupcakes in a variety of flavors by Elisa Cake By the Pound — as long as supply lasts
- rock out to the land and sea swimming performance by the amphibious Pointer Sisters: 9:00am at the south east end of the Point
- decorate your own pointy hat for Point Day — all day
- paint the underpass with the Hyde Park Art Center (non toxic, biodegradable, washable, harmless tempera school paints) to advertise next summer's mural project — 10:00am - 2:00pm at the underpass
- walk the 450+ stone carvings on the Point's revetment with Bill Swislow — 11:00am walk the landscape of the Point with Jack Spicer — 2:00pm
- make your mark at the stone carving workshop with sculptors Roman Villarreal and Joel Gardenas — 10:30am - 2:00pm
- make colorful chalk art on the limestone revetment — all day
- play croquet or badminton, or fly a kite (if it's not too windy) — all day
- FREE firewood at the Council Ring fire pits
- FREE Save the Point Again! buttons, bumperstickers, postcards, timelines, literature galore

All events meet at the National Register plaque, east side of the tunnel, near the Wallach Fountain
